MEETING LOCATE IN A “CONFERENCE CENTRE”

Most of the meeting activities will be in the Medina Mediterranea. It is a new, old-style, village that opened in 2003 in the touristic area of Yasmine Hammamet, a one-hour drive from Tunis. It is a living reminder of the old Tunisian and Mediterranean heritage and life; a trip into the past to see how cities and life once were. Tucked into the alley-ways of shops and plaza's with outdoor cafes is a modern Conference Centre for our plenary meetings. Near-by are other facilities for lunches, exhibits, ceremonies and out-of-door social activities.

HOTELS

In Yasmine Hammamet there is more than: 10 five stars hotels, 25 four stars hotels and 10 three stars hotels (For more information: <http://www.hotels-tunisiens.com>)

Hotels near the Medina have been selected for our meeting. There are a good number of rooms available in every category, and the rates obtained by the Host Committee are attractive.

NOTE: please do not book these selected hotels via the internet. You will not receive the special meeting prices. Please book your hotel on the official Conference registration form. But if you find a best price or accommodation, you can do your reservation, but please inform the Tunisian Team Host Committee.

The official currency of Tunisia is the Tunisian Dinar. For calculating conversion rates between currencies, try: <http://www.oanda.com>

Credit cards are widely accepted. There are cash machines in the Medina.

A Cyber Cafe in the Medina is being planned by our hosts for Internet access.

Electricity: 220 volts, 50 cycles.

Language: Arabic, French, and English are common.
